Philip J Weinstein DEPA for period 01/01/14 - 12/31/14, Submitted 2014-02-04 11:12:12

1. Are you involved in the design, conduct, or reporting of any Public Health Service (PHS) research project? (This includes, but is not limited to, agencies such as NIH, NCI, NICH Detc.) Reminder: If your answer is "yes", you must be You answered: No current with the Skillsoft training entitled CU: Conflict of Interest for NIH, and refresh every four years. You answered: No 2. During this report year, do you or ANY family member with whom you have a close relationship, meet or expect to meet any of the thresholds itemized below regarding a business entity that either (1) funds your university research and/or scholarly or creative activities; or (2) engages in commercial or research activities that directly relate to your university activities? (See the current COI policy definition of "family" for specifics). You answered: No • Receive income of ≥$5,000 from a publicly owned or privately owned business entity. • Have an equity interest or ownership valued at ≥$5,000 in a publicly owned/traded business entity. You answered: No • Have an equity interest or ownership valued at ANY AMOUNT in a privately owned/traded business entity. • Hold a executive position in the business. You answered: No 3. Do you assign, or expect to assign during this report year, books or materials for any classes that you teach that bring you royalties or any outside organization(s)? Reminder: Outside consulting activities to any outside organization(s)? Reminder: Outside consulting activities to any outside organization(s)? Reminder: Guestion, For oreone (S) You answered: No * Have an equity interest or ownership valued at Opy organizes oricome? You answered: No a close relationship, meet or expect to meet any of the thresholds itemized below regarding a business entity that either (1) funds your university research and/or scholarly or creative activities; or (2) engges in commercial or research and/or scholarly or creative activities; or (2) engges in commercial or research and/or scholarly or restive activities; or (2) engges in commercial or research and/or scholarly or restive activities; or (2) engges in commercial or research and/or scholarly or restive activities; or (2) engles in commercial or research and/or scholarly of "family" for specifics). • Receive income of ≥$5,000 from a publicly owned or privately owned business entity (includes but is not limited to royalties, consulting fees, salary, dividends, etc.). • Have an equity interest or ownership valued at ≥$5,000 in a publicly owned/traded business entity. • Hold a seat on the board of directors or advisory board. • Hold a seat on the board of directors or advisory board. • Hold a nexecutive position in the business. 3. Do you assign, or expect to assign during this report year, books or materials for any classes that you teach that bring you royalties or income? 4. Regardless of compensation, do you provide, or expect to provide, professional services that are related to your University activities to any outside organization(s)? Reminder: Outside consulting activities require department approval per the 1/6 Rule. Note that remunerated scholarship that is an expected activity in your discipline (such as seminars, lectures or teaching engagements, professional presentations, work on review panels, or membership in advisory commitment, see http://www.colorado.edu/facultyaffairs/atoz/one-sixth-rule.pdf. University policy limits outside professional activities to 19.5 days per semester. 5. Are you a member of a committee, or an employee involved with a departmental process, that reviews research proposals/protocols for institutional approval? (e.g. COIC, IACUC, IRB, OCG etc).	Service (PHS) research project? (This includes, but is not limited to, agencies such as NIH, NCI, NICHD etc.) Reminder: If your answer is "yes", you must be current with the Skillsoft training entitled CU: Conflict of Interest for NIH, and	You answered: No business entity (includes but is not limited to royalties, consulting fees, salary, dividends, etc.). You answered: No • Have an equity interest or ownership valued at ≥$5,000 in a publicly owned/traded business entity. • Have an equity interest or ownership valued at ANY AMOUNT in a privately owned/traded business entity. • Hold a seat on the board of directors or advisory board. • Hold an executive position in the business. • You answered: No 3. Do you assign, or expect to assign during this report year, books or materials for any classes that you teach that bring you royalties or income? You answered: No 4. Regardless of compensation, do you provide, or expect to provide, professional services that are related to your University activities to any outside organization(s)? Reminder: Outside consulting activities require department approval per the 1/6 Rule. You answered: No Note that remunerated scholarship that is an expected activity in your discipline (such as seminars, lectures or teaching engagements, professional presentations, work on review panels, or membership in advisory committees) does not count as professional services in this question. For more information on the munerated scholarship and conflict of commitment, see http://www.colorado.edu/facultyaffairs/atoz/one-sixth-rule.pdf. University policy limits outside professional activities to 19.5 days per semester. You answered: No 5. Are you a member of a committee, or an employee involved with a departmental process, that reviews research proposals/protocols for institutional approval? (e.g. COIC, IACUC, IRB, OCG etc). You answered: No	a close relationship, meet or expect to meet any of the thresholds itemized below regarding a business entity that either (1) funds your university research and/or scholarly or creative activities; or (2) engages in commercial or research activities that directly relate to your university activities? (See the materials for any classes that you teach that bring you royalties or income? You answered: No 4. Regardless of compensation, do you provide, or expect to provide, professional services that are related to your University activities to any outside organization(s)? Reminder: Outside consulting activities require department approval per the 1/6 Rule. You answered: No Note that remunerated scholarship that is an expected activity in your discipline (such as seminars, lectures or teaching engagements, professional presentations, work on review panels, or membership in advisory committees) does not count as professional services in this question. For more information on the meaning of remunerated scholarship and conflict of commitment, see http://www.colorado.edu/facultyaffairs/atoz/one-sixth-rule.pdf. University policy limits outside professional activities to 19.5 days per semester. You answered: No 5. Are you a member of a committee, or an employee involved with a departmental process, that reviews research proposals/protocols for institutional approval? (e.g. COIC, IACUC, IRB, OCG etc). You answered: No	 business entity (includes but is not limited to royalties, consulting fees, salary, dividends, etc.). Have an equity interest or ownership valued at ≥$5,000 in a publicly owned/traded business entity. Have an equity interest or ownership valued at ANY AMOUNT in a privately owned/traded business entity. Hold a seat on the board of directors or advisory board. 	You answered: No professional services that are related to your University activities to any outside organization(s)? Reminder: Outside consulting activities require department approval per the 1/6 Rule. Note that remunerated scholarship that is an expected activity in your discipline (such as seminars, lectures or teaching engagements, professional presentations, work on review panels, or membership in advisory committees) does not count as professional services in this question. For more information on the meaning of remunerated scholarship and conflict of commitment, see http://www.colorado.edu/facultyaffairs/atoz/one-sixth-rule.pdf. University policy limits outside professional activities to 19.5 days per semester. 5. Are you a member of a committee, or an employee involved with a departmental process, that reviews research proposals/protocols for institutional approval? (e.g. COIC, IACUC, IRB, OCG etc).		You answered: No departmental process, that reviews research proposals/protocols for institutional approval? (e.g. COIC, IACUC, IRB, OCG etc). You answered: No	professional services that are related to your University activities to any outside organization(s)? Reminder: Outside consulting activities require department approval per the 1/6 Rule. Note that remunerated scholarship that is an expected activity in your discipline (such as seminars, lectures or teaching engagements, professional presentations, work on review panels, or membership in advisory committees) does not count as professional services in this question. For more information on the meaning of remunerated scholarship and conflict of commitment, see http://www.colorado.edu/facultyaffairs/atoz/one-sixth-rule.pdf. University
End of DEPA for report year 2014	departmental process, that reviews research proposals/protocols for	You answered: No