Zagona, Principal Investigator and The Center for Advanced Decision Support for Water and Environmental Systems (CADSWES) RiverWare developers. All rights are reserved by University.

RiverWare, including the RiverWare Viewer, are the property of University. Any use, copy, publication, distribution, display, modification, or transmission of this software in whole or in part in any form or by any means without the written permission of University is strictly prohibited.

RiverWare is a reservoir and river modeling software tool developed at CADSWES at the University of Colorado-Boulder, under joint sponsorship by the Tennessee Valley Authority, the Bureau of Reclamation and the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. This software is licensed through the University of Colorado Technology Transfer Office.

RiverWare is registered trademark of The Regents of the University of Colorado.

Read the terms and conditions of your license agreement carefully before copying, installing, or using RiverWare. Unless a commercial license agreement has been signed, this agreement (the "Agreement") represents the entire agreement between you (the "Licensee") and the Regents of the University of Colorado, a body corporate, having its principal office at 1800 Grant Street, Suite 800, Denver, CO 80203 (hereinafter "University") concerning RiverWare. By copying, installing, or using RiverWare, you accept the terms of this agreement.

1. University grants Licensee a nonexclusive, nontransferable license (a) to use The RiverWare Viewer, solely for the purposes of viewing files created with RiverWare, (b) to use RiverWare, solely for the purposes of evaluating the purchase of a commercial license, (c) under a grant of rights specified in a separate commercial license or (d) to use RiverWare in accordance with the permission granted by CADSWES at the time that RiverWare was provided. ("Licensed Purpose")
2. Licensee shall not use the optimization controller in RiverWare without a CPLEX license. If Licensee has a CPLEX license, Licensee agrees to use the RiverWare optimization controller within the limits of their CPLEX license. Licensee shall not decompile RiverWare, nor develop with CPLEX, nor invoke any of CPLEX's application programming interfaces.
3. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY PROVIDED HEREIN, LICENSEE SHALL MAKE NO OTHER USE OF RIVERWARE. In the event that Licensee desires to use RiverWare for purposes other than a Licensed Purpose, Licensee shall obtain a commercial license from University under standard terms and conditions.
4. Licensee shall be solely responsible for obtaining any technical support.
5. UNIVERSITY MAKE NO REPRESENTATIONS, EXTEND NO OTHER WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, AND ASSUME NO RESPONSIBILITIES WHATSOEVER WITH RESPECT TO USE OR PERFORMANCE OF RIVERWARE. THERE ARE NO OTHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, NOR WARRANTIES THAT THE USE OF RIVERWARE WILL NOT INFRINGE ANY PATENT, COPYRIGHT, TRADEMARK, SERVICE MARK, OR OTHER RIGHTS.
6. LICENSEE IS RESPONSIBLE FOR ITS USE OF RIVERWARE.
7. Licensee shall indemnify, defend, and hold the University and its third party providers and funding sponsors, the University's regents, employees, students, officers, agents, affiliates, and representatives harmless from and against all liability, demands, damages, losses, and expenses (including attorney fees), for death, personal injury, illness, property damage, noncompliance with applicable laws and any other claim, proceeding, demand, expense and liability of any kind whatsoever in connection with or arising out of (a) the use by or on behalf of Licensee, its directors, officers, or employees of RiverWare; or (b) any right or obligation of Licensee under this Agreement. For any Licensee which is an instrumentality of any U.S. State or United States Federal government, this indemnification shall be provided to the extent allowed by law. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the respective successors and assigns of the University. Licensee may not assign its rights in this Agreement.
8. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Colorado.
9. Notice hereunder shall be deemed sufficient if given by registered mail, postage prepaid, and addressed to the party to receive such notice at the address given below, or such other address as may hereafter be designated by notice in writing. University: Technology Transfer Office, University of Colorado, 4740 Walnut Street, Suite 100, Boulder, CO 80309-0589 Attn: License Administrator (Case #7063, Riverware)
10. Licensee agrees not to identify University in any promotional advertising, press releases, sales literature or other promotional materials to be disseminated to the public or any portion thereof without University prior written consent in each case, except that Licensee may state that it has a license for RiverWare from University. Licensee further agrees not to use the name of University or any University faculty member, inventor, employee or student or any trademark, service mark, trade name, copyright or symbol of University, without the prior written consent of the University, entity or person whose name is sought to be used.

11. The provisions of this Agreement are severable, and in the event that any provision of this Agreement is determined to be invalid or unenforceable under any controlling body of the law, such invalidity or unenforceability will not in any way affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions hereof.
12. The parties agree that nothing in this Agreement is intended or shall be construed as a waiver, either express or implied, of any of the immunities, rights, benefits, defenses or protections provided to University under governmental or sovereign immunity laws from time to time applicable to University, including, without limitation, the Colorado Governmental Immunity Act (C.R.S. §§ 24-10-101, et seq.) and the Eleventh Amendment to the United States Constitution.
13. The provisions of this Agreement that by their nature are intended to survive, shall survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement.
